

Birds & Animals renew their coats once a year,
life begins anew each year the young are born though mated for life -

One walk of a few hours out of doors leads with the serious intention of getting acquainted with our feathered neighbors in often enough to arouse sufficient interest to cause the observer to be a bird student for a lifetime

Flores - High-birds
Golden winged woodpecker Red shafted

Willow Warbler (Colaptes
Caper salicarius)

Yellow Warbler

70 or more local names

nests in haunted house 20 holes in Porch Pillars of church rats ants, beetles, moths, worms a little fruit (wild fruit)