

Fifth Annual Conference of the Oregon Wildlife Federation

Corvallis, Oregon
November 27-28, 1940

PROGRAM

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1940

Morning Session—8:30-12:30

Registration—8:30 to 9:30.

Opening of Session—William J. Smith, President, Oregon Wildlife Federation.

Chairman for the Session—Dr. J. Karl Leaverton, President of Multnomah Hunters and Anglers Club.

Address of Welcome—Frank L. Ballard, President of Oregon State College.

Report of the President and Appointment of Committees.

Report of Secretary-Treasurer—Norman A. Davis.

"A Heritage We Guard"—I. C. DeArmond, Soil Conservation Service.

Problems of Wildlife Refuges—Stanley G. Jewett, Regional Biologist, United States Fish and Wildlife Service.

Wildlife Contributions of the Fish and Wildlife Service—Leo L. Laythe, Regional Director of the United States Fish and Wildlife Service.

National Forests as Recreational Areas—Lyle F. Watts, Regional Forester of the Pacific Northwest Forest Region.

Afternoon Session—1:30-5:30

Chairman for the Session—H. A. Lawrence, President, Oregon State Izaak Walton League of America.

Splash Dams and Ditch Screening—Frank B. Wire, Supervisor, Oregon State Game Commission.

Dams on the Willamette—Discussion led by Dr. William L. Finley, Vice President of the National Wildlife Federation.

Trends of Conservation and Conservation Problems—Dr. Ira N. Gabrielson, Director, United States Fish and Wildlife Service.

Coastal Stream Measure—Explanation of bill by C. J. Kowitz. Discussion led by Dr. C. F. Milleson.

Banquet—Wednesday Evening—6:45

Memorial Union Building

Introduction of Toastmaster—W. J. Smith, President, Oregon Wildlife Federation.

Toastmaster—E. F. Averill, Past President of Oregon Wildlife Federation.

Bits and Titbits—Leo L. Laythe, Regional Director of United States Fish and Wildlife Service.

The History of Conservation in Oregon—Dr. William L. Finley, Vice President of the National Wildlife Federation.

National Conservation of Wildlife—Dr. Ira N. Gabrielson, Director of the United States Fish and Wildlife Service.

Wildlife in Color—Dr. William L. Finley, and W. J. Smith.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1940

Morning Session—9:00-12:30

Chairman for the Session—Rex Sanford, President, Salem Hunters and Anglers Club.

The Oregon State Game Commission in Action:

Progress Report of the "14 Points" of the Oregon State Game Commission—Ed E. Wilson, Chairman, Oregon State Game Commission.

Resume of Grazing and Small Game Problems—Arthur S. Eimersen, Associate Biologist, United States Fish and Wildlife Service.

Pittman-Robertson Projects—Ralph C. Rittenour, State Director of Pittman-Robertson Projects.

Fish Liberation—Willard Jarvis, Field Biologist, Oregon State Game Commission.

Stream and Lake Surveys—Ross Newcomb, Field Biologist, Oregon State Game Commission.

Pollution and Its Effect on Fish Life—Colored motion pictures taken by W. J. Smith.

Discussion of Pollution Problem—Harold F. Wendel, Chairman, State Sanitary Commission; Ed F. Averill; Carl E. Green, State Sanitary Engineer.

Wildlife Debit and Credit Balances—W. J. Smith, President, Oregon Wildlife Federation.

Afternoon Session—1:30-5:30

Discussion of fish problems including fish racks, posted lands, fish ladders, fish screens, splash dams, etc.

The Perfection of the Oregon Wildlife Federation and Its 1941 Program.

Report of Committees.

Election of Officers.

Closing of Meeting.